This office provides information of all kinds about Portugal, with the purpose of improving the knowledge which exists in the United States about Portugal, and to also further the links of friendship between the 2 Western Countries.

It also gives tourist information to all potential visitors to Portugal, to the Travel Agents, and the Carriers maintaining the connections between the USA and Portugal.

Likewise, it assists American firms interested in importing from Portugal and also those Portuguese companies looking to introduce their products in the American market. In addition, it answers inquiries from business and trade organizations interested in furthering trade between the two countries.

It also maintains a service of supplying schools with cultural material useful for use in their classes.

A registrant who represents more than one foreign principal is required to list in the statements he files under the Act only those foreign principals for whom he is not entitled to claim exemption under Section 3 of the Act. (See Rule 208.)
